

Frontiersmen Camping Fellowship Outfit Judging Guidelines

Frontiersmen Camping Fellowship Costume Judging Guidelines

Procedures

1. Mark points you earn in each category
2. Total Points from each category, write in overall score
3. Return score sheet to judges
4. Report to designated place at the appointed time in full costume and accessories to be judged
5. Winners will be announced at the designated time

Definitions

1. Handmade – Made by hand with hand tools, not machines. Does not include assembly of pre-packaged kits.
2. Beaded – Strips or rosettes with a definite pattern- extra bonus points awarded for handcrafted beads.
3. Authentic – Correct for the period of your costume: i.e. No percussion rifle with 18th century colonials.

Judging Criteria

1. Your overall points from the score sheet will be our base.
2. We will add seven points per item which are handmade that were acquired by trading items which you have made.
3. We will add nine points per item which you have personally handmade
4. The additional points will be added to your base score.
5. At the judges discretion you may receive additional bonus points, (Based on a scale of 1-10, 1 being the least authentic, 10 being the most authentic) for overall appearance, including fit of clothing, authenticity, and quality of materials and workmanship. 10 points max
6. The judge's decision is final.

Craftsmanship Points

Points will be given for each item that the contestant personally hand made. 1-5 points will be given for each item based on the quality of the craftsmanship, 1 being very rough, and 5 being museum quality

Tie Breaker

Should a tie occur, it will become necessary to determine who has the most authentic outfit. This evaluation should be based on historical documentation of the articles that the contestant is wearing, with references to those documents. For example, Rev. Joseph Doddridge wrote extensively about the longhunters of the canetucks, their habits, clothing, and methods as a first hand account. Inventory receipts and military reports are also good documentation of the historical accuracy of certain items, such as the Journals of Lewis and Clark.

The contestant who is able to produce the best information will be awarded 1 tie-breaker point.
